
Operational Description

The touch screen's operation description is following:

- 1, It connects PC through USB port..
- 2, It detects user's finger or other objects inside the area and sends their position data to PC.